

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Mrs. Mildred Coughlin began her career in 1973, spending five years at Joyce Kilmer Elementary School in Milltown, New Jersey, before moving to Parkview Elementary School, also in Milltown, in 1978; and

WHEREAS, in 1980, Mrs. Coughlin and her family moved to Volusia County and Mrs. Coughlin began her long association with St. Brendan's Parochial School in Ormond Beach; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Coughlin has instilled a love of learning in thousands of students who came to appreciate her dedication to her craft, her keen sense of humor, and her innate ability to combine understanding and compassion while giving firm direction to those in her charge. She embodied the highest ideals of her profession, affected those with whom she worked with her selflessness, and made the lives of her students richer for having been in her presence; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Coughlin is listed in Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America and was nominated for the N.C.E.A. Miriam Joseph Farrell Award for Distinguished Catholic Teaching; and

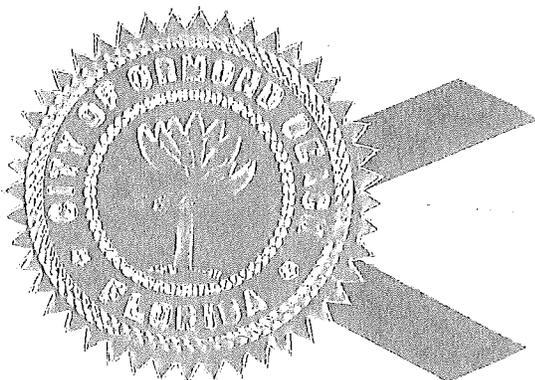

WHEREAS, Mrs. Coughlin is one woman who can say she saw her dreams come true right before her eyes;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Fred Costello, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim March 20, 2010, as a day to honor in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day as we celebrate the life and career of Mrs. Mildred Coughlin.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 20th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Ten.
