

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, wherever a Lions club gets together, problems get smaller and communities get better. Lions help where help is needed—in our own communities and around the world. With over 45,000 clubs and more than 1.3 million members, the Lions Club is one of the world's largest and most effective service club organizations; and

WHEREAS, chartered in 1954, the Ormond Beach Lions Club has always prided itself on serving the needs of the community, thus living up to the Lion's motto, "We Serve"; and

WHEREAS, in our community, the Ormond Beach Lions Club sponsors a student-athlete program at Seabreeze High School which recognizes a student athlete each month during the school year at their meetings where he/she is awarded a plaque and a chance to talk about future plans and ambitions, as well as, sponsoring an annual Peace Poster contest for middle school students, rewarding the winners and forwarding the best one to the Lions District for judging; and

WHEREAS, the annual White Cane Days is a celebration and fundraiser for Lions' projects, such as paying for eye exams and glasses for those in need and collecting eyeglasses for processing and reuse; and

WHEREAS, for the enjoyment of Ormond Beach citizens, the Lions built and maintain the picturesque Lions Park at the foot of Dix Avenue on the beautiful Halifax River;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Fred Costello, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim June 28, 2010, as a day to recognize the

in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me in supporting the worthy efforts of the Ormond Beach Lions Club for the visually impaired and physically challenged citizens of our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 28th day of June in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Ten.
