

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Jacqueline. P. Burke began working for the City of Ormond Beach in May of 1988, working under Public Works Director Alan Gilbert and Human Resources Director Troy Alley; and

WHEREAS, it soon became known that Jackie could handle any situation, just ask her husband Thomas, and children Christine and Lucas. She was especially remarkable with customer service, as she listened to citizen complaints and found solutions to their problems; and

WHEREAS, Jackie had to be multi-talented in a variety of ways. She served under several City Managers, including Bernie Murphy, Troy Alley, and Eugene Miller. During Mr. Miller's tenure, Jackie became the City Manager's Secretary and continued to serve in that capacity under Isaac Turner, Theodore MacLeod, and Joyce Shanahan. She was on top of most every situation going on in the city, and always had time to listen in a manner that was uplifting and caring, not only to citizens but to her co-workers, friends, and family, as well; and

WHEREAS, as time wore on, Jackie was known for planning employee events, such as the City Hall Holiday Luncheon, Employee Appreciation Day, and Volusia League of Cities dinners, as well as her daughter's magnificent wedding. Those of us who know Jackie well know how much she loved sharing her crackers, cookies, candy, and pretzels with her co-workers; and

WHEREAS, Jackie and her husband Thomas, son Luke, and brother Carmine, the dog (Hallie) and the cat (Sebastian) all enjoy time together, and especially so with visits from daughter Christine, son-in-law Sean, and grandchildren Schuyler and Sunshine. Carmine retired last year and Jackie has decided to follow in his footsteps; and

WHEREAS, we love you, Jackie, and wish you all the best, and we miss you already!

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Fred Costello, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim October 30, 2010, as a day to honor
