

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the history of our country has been blessed with men and women of valor who believe in the American way of life; and

WHEREAS, these men and women fought on foreign shores in the war to end all wars and placed God and country above their personal safety and pledged themselves to the continuation of liberty for all Americans; and

WHEREAS, the attack on Pearl Harbor led President Franklin D. Roosevelt to proclaim December 7 "a date which will live in infamy"; and

WHEREAS, we gratefully acknowledge that we live in freedom today because of the many sacrifices that were made by our valiant servicemen and women of World War II; and

WHEREAS, it would be appropriate for all of us to remember what our military has done for us by showing respect, gratitude, and appreciation for the efforts of those men and women who willingly served for our freedom, such as World War II veterans Stanley Betts, Joseph Cahill, George Craigmile, Joseph Chilton, Kenneth Coleman, John Darnell, Richard Grumwald, Leon Jordan, Douglas Little, James McGinnis, William Megevick, Donald Moore, Robert Morrison, Andy Romano, John Shanahan, Joe Tate, Robert Traetta, and Tracy Wichmann;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, do hereby proclaim December 7, 2010, in remembrance of

in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to support the observance of this special day as a patriotic and heartfelt remembrance of all those who served and died for our country during the attack on Pearl Harbor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, to be affixed this 7th day of December in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Ten.

ED KELLEY
Mayor
