

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Robert Douglas "Doug" Stanley was respected by all who knew him, and he will be forever known as a compassionate, loving husband, father, grandfather, teacher and coach; and

WHEREAS, Doug was a graduate of Mainland High School who served in the U.S. Air Force and earned degrees from the University of Florida and Stetson University. As a teacher with Volusia County Schools for 30 years, he taught through word and deed and served as a living example of character; and

WHEREAS, Doug believed everyone had a talent and could contribute something. He was an encourager and motivator who believed in you more than you believed in yourself, which made you strive to be better; and

WHEREAS, to Doug, sportsmanship was a priority. He was loyal to his players, treating them as if they were his own, giving them his full attention and helping them on and off the field by focusing on their strengths and letting them learn from their mistakes. He believed in discipline and hard work and taught his players how to respect authority at home and at school; and

WHEREAS, Doug helped shape many young lives as a father and grandfather, teacher and coach, and his legacy lives on through his children, grandchildren, and former students; and

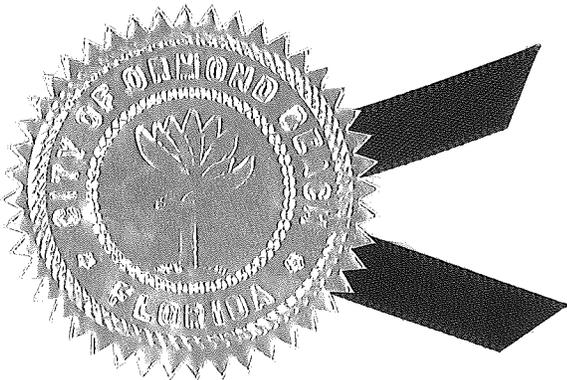

WHEREAS, Doug Stanley will be sorely missed by his family and friends, and the community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim August 20, 2011, as a day to remember in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day as we extend our sincere condolences to the family of Doug Stanley.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 20th day of August in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Eleven.

ED KELLEY
Mayor
