Pine Trail Third Graders Perform "The Jungle Book"

Pine Trail Elementary School presented "The Jungle Book" at the Ormond Beach Performing Arts Center on Thursday, May 17th. The third grade students, under the direction of art and music teacher, Mrs. Melody Potash, performed the beloved Rudyard Kipling story.

The story was made into a Broadway style musical, and is told through song, dance, and dialogue. The students worked very hard to learn all their lines, music, and choreography. They performed for schools earlier in the day, and also did a performance for the public in the evening. It was an exciting and fun experience for the children to be onstage in a theatre and perform for their fellow students, family, and friends. These talented children did an excellent job!

Hospital Demolition Community Meeting

Central Environmental Services, Inc., hosted a Community Informational Meeting at the Ormond Beach Performing Arts Center on Monday, May 21st. The purpose of this meeting was to explain the demolition plan for the old Ormond Memorial Hospital building on Sterthaus Avenue.

Florida Hospital, the owner of the building, awarded the demolition contract for the old hospital building to Central Environmental Services. In order to fully inform the public and address any concerns of neighboring residents, the presentation included the specifics of the demolition plan, as well as a question and answer session.

Watercolor

Janet Rogers held two watercolor workshops at The Casements last week. On Monday and Tuesday, the workshop was entitled "Expressive Flowers in Watercolor," and Wednesday through Friday artists were given instruction during the class entitled "Expressive Faces and Figures in Watercolor."

Janet Rogers is an award-winning watercolor instructor who is well known throughout the United States and Europe for her expressive floral paintings and sensitive portraits of women and children. She is a Signature Member of the Florida Watercolor Society and a Member with Excellence of the South Carolina Watercolor Society. The Casements is proud that someone of Janet's caliber is holding workshops here for our area artists.
