

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The Girl Scouts of America endeavors to influence the development of character, leadership, good citizenship, and the respect of others, building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place; and

WHEREAS, Karen Worman has been involved in Girl Scouts for ten years and received her Bronze and Silver Awards along with Troop 877 over the past several years; and

WHEREAS, Karen selected as her project toward achieving the Gold Award to design and develop a project entitled "A Portrait of the Jewish Community of Daytona Beach" that traces the beginnings of the Jewish population in the Daytona Beach area. She created a website that follows the roots of this Jewish community from the early 1900s to the present day and provides a resource of information to the area's Jewish services; and

WHEREAS, Karen is a junior at Seabreeze High School where she is enrolled in the Culinary Academy and is active in the National Honor Society, Tom's Club, Student Government, and Leo Club. She is a member of Congregation B'Nai Torah and a participant in their Hebrew High School, as well as a volunteer for Jewish Federation. Karen is sweet, kind, and bright; and

WHEREAS, Karen earned the honor of achieving the highest rank in Girl Scouts, attained by only 5.4 percent of all Girl Scouts, the Gold Award;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim February 19, 2013, as in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day in paying tribute to Karen as an outstanding representative of the youth of the City of Ormond Beach and in thanking her for her service to our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 19th day of February in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Thirteen.
