

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, today we pay tribute to the very special family of Dewey and Leora Watson, who moved to Ormond Beach in 1935; and

WHEREAS, the Watsons created many happy memories in Ormond Beach with their children, Willie, Sampson, Louis, John, James, George, Richard and Orale. They lived on Washington Place, Jefferson Avenue and Palm Place throughout the years and the children attended the now historic Rigby Elementary School; and

WHEREAS, having lived in Ormond Beach all their lives the Watson Family deemed it appropriate to give back to the community; and

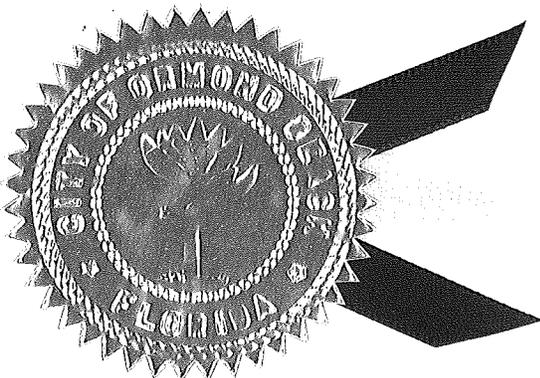

WHEREAS, the Watson Family donated a large charcoal grill to the South Ormond Neighborhood Center for the benefit of the children and families who enjoy the amenities at this beautiful neighborhood youth center;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim July 18, 2013, as a day to honor the

in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day in paying tribute to this fine family for their service to the city and in making a better quality of life for our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 18th day of July in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Thirteen.
