

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, May Hutson recently celebrated her 101st birthday with family and friends at the Seasons by Riviera in Ormond Beach where she is a resident of the Memory Care Neighborhood. May was born October 8, 1912, in Seville and is a lifelong resident of Volusia County; and

WHEREAS, May began a 42-year teaching career in Enterprise, Florida, having taught school for many years at the Holly Hill Elementary School on Ridgewood Avenue, as well as coaching basketball, and at the old Volusia Avenue Elementary School on International Speedway Boulevard; and

WHEREAS, May was active in the Girls Scouts of Volusia County, and she has been a member of the First Baptist Church of Daytona Beach where she taught Sunday School for many years; and

WHEREAS, May was married for 50 years to John Hutson of Daytona Beach, and they had one daughter, four grandchildren and five-great grandchildren. She enjoys going on outings, looking at old jewelry, and singing praise and worship music; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth is 101 years “young” today and celebrating with her family and friends;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, do hereby proclaim October 8, 2013, as in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me this day in tribute to May Hutson as she celebrates her 101st birthday and for her many years of service to our community.

MAY HUTSON DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, to be affixed this 8th day of October in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Thirteen.

Ed Kelley
ED KELLEY
Mayor