

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Garden Club of the Halifax Country is a volunteer organization whose members passionately devote their energies and expertise to a wide array of projects in their community, such as the restoration of the Emmons Cottage, which was relocated behind the Ormond Memorial Art Museum Gardens several years ago; and

WHEREAS, the Garden Club members are very familiar with the dilapidated former greenhouse which had been decaying and unused for ten years; and

WHEREAS, the Garden Club members envisioned a state of the art greenhouse that could be used by long-time gardener Janett Van Wicklen-Taylor, children in some of our educational programs, and for garden club horticultural projects. The new greenhouse project was spearheaded by club member, Lori Tolland in partnership with the City of Ormond Beach Leisure Services Department, along with support from A-Certified Screens, Austin Outdoor, Anne and Locke Burt, and Giles Electric; and

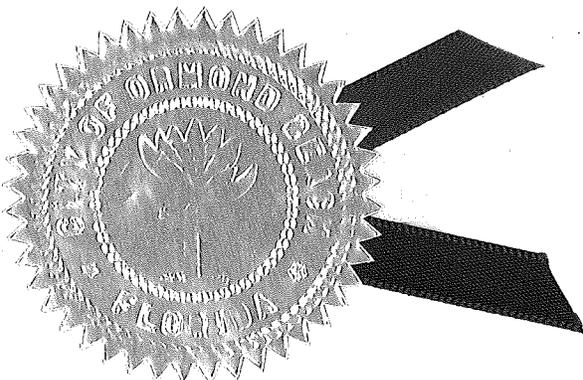

WHEREAS, today's ribbon cutting ceremony celebrates the opening of the Janett Van Wicklen-Taylor Greenhouse, named in her honor for 34 years of tending the gardens at the Ormond Memorial Art Museum;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim November 14, 2014, as a day to dedicate the

in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me in celebrating the dedication of the Janett Van Wicklen-Taylor Greenhouse in the Ormond Memorial Art Museum Gardens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 14th day of November in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fourteen.
