

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Jessie Lemoyne was born on May 19, 1935, to Mary Jarvis and Frank Downes Scott, in Cape Charles, Virginia. She is the sixth of eight children who grew up on a large farm. Some of her best memories are playing with her siblings, riding their horse "Star," and having a big loving family, who went to church where their Daddy was strict about the girls wearing hats; and

WHEREAS, Jessie was a cheerleader and Homecoming Queen in high school, and she attended Queens College in North Carolina where she was voted President of the Boarding Student Council. One Sunday when she was home from college, she forgot her hat and her Daddy told her she better find one before church the next morning...; and

WHEREAS, Jessie has worked hard all her life, sometimes as many as four jobs at once. She babysat for many families--one of which even left their child in her care for several months. She worked for Florida Power & Light for 28 years and for St. James Episcopal School for another 20 years in the front office, where she was loved by all the children--the eighth grade class even dedicated their yearbook to her twice; and

WHEREAS, Jessie loved the outdoors, having raced sailboats, skied in a dress, and played on the church and FPL softball leagues as a catcher. Also, she loves doing Wonder Word puzzles in the newspaper, but her most favorite thing is cooking. Her family says she makes the best fried chicken ever; and

WHEREAS, Jessie Lemoyne is the best mother, grandmother and role model. She is a long-time faithful member of Christ Presbyterian Church, who loves the Lord and is a shining example of how we should all live. She gives tirelessly and lovingly to everyone, both family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Jessie Lemoyne's family and friends have planned their best celebration ever for Jessie's 80th birthday;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, do hereby proclaim May 23, 2015, as in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me this day in tribute to Jessie Lemoyne as she celebrates her 80th birthday.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, to be affixed this 23rd day of May in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fifteen.

ED KELLEY
Mayor
