

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, James "JD" Davis began his employment with the City of Ormond Beach on September 30, 1974, as a Laborer at the Wastewater Treatment Plant and as a result of his hard work and dedication, he advanced through the ranks and in 1997 he achieved the position of System Maintenance Supervisor – Wastewater Collection & Reuse Systems, the position that he still holds today. JD has been employed with the City for forty-one (41) years and is responsible for supervising all operational and maintenance needs of the sanitary sewer collection and reclaimed water systems in the City of Ormond Beach Utility Service Area; and

WHEREAS, JD's many years of experience and thorough knowledge of the City's sanitary collection system is unsurpassed. He is an effective and proven leader and is relied upon often by other public works and facilities maintenance divisions for assisting various critical work efforts and customer service activities; and

WHEREAS, JD's professional dedication and reliability are illustrated by his years of service and uncanny capability to respond to any callout of any nature at any time. His consistent and effective supervision of the challenging wastewater collection system has been recognized many times over by his peers and commendations received from the citizens in the area he serves; and

WHEREAS, JD further illustrates his commitment to the community as an active member of the Ormond Yacht Club serving as Director over the past four years. JD is known throughout the public works community for making himself available to assist most anyone who needs a lending hand and for his consistent generosity and outreach. JD has provided a consistent and long standing commitment to serving the needs of the City's utilities systems and its customers over the past forty-one (41) years, as the City and its customers have benefitted from JD's long-standing service efforts;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim October 30, 2015, as a day to recognize the service, leadership and commitment to utility customers, fellow employees and citizens throughout the community by congratulating the successful career of the City's most long-standing employee and urge all residents to join with me on this day as we recognize his valued service and dedication to Ormond Beach as we extend our admiration to him for attaining this well-deserved retirement for a job exceptionally completed and wishing him as much success in his next endeavor of his choosing!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 2nd day of October in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fifteen.
