

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, as a young girl, Liz Huber grew up learning how to bake in her Mother's kitchen, also discovering at an early age she had a talent for painting and drawing; and

WHEREAS, Liz is a hometown girl and graduate of Seabreeze High School and the University of Florida. After a couple of years of making cakes for family members, she decided to pursue her passion in cake design, combining her business education, baking skills and artistic ability into a successful business creating "Art You Can Eat." She creates wedding, birthday and other specialty cakes, cake pops, cupcakes, candy bars, candy buffets, and dessert bars, including 3-D cakes in any shape; and

WHEREAS, Liz launched Cakery Creation in Daytona Beach in 2011 and moved to her current location in the historic Bushman Building, at 11 West Granada Boulevard in early 2014. As her business grew, so did the popularity of cake-artistry shows on TV. She learned last summer that the Food Network's "Cake Wars" was looking for contestants for its second season; and of course, she applied and was accepted to the competition; and

WHEREAS, Liz appeared on national television on January 25, 2016, on Food Network's "Cake Wars" winning a $10,000 prize for her masterpiece 3-D pastry depiction of Po, the Kung Fu panda;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim March 1, 2016, as a day to recognize in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me in recognizing Liz Huber for her achievements and success of her business Cakery Creation.

LIZ HUBER

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 1st day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Sixteen.

Ed Kelley
ED KELLEY
Mayor