Trevor Richardson

With the help of Boy Scout Troop 404, Trevor Richardson, an honor roll student and rising sophomore at Seabreeze High School, completed the construction of an informational kiosk at Ormond Beach Environmental Discovery Center on Saturday, April 16th, to earn the rank of Eagle Scout which is the highest rank in Boy Scouts of America. Trevor began his scouting career in fourth grade (2010) and has been with Troop 404 since 2012.

Since the rank of Eagle Scout was introduced in 1911, it has been earned by more than 2 million young men, or less than 5% of all eligible scouts, and is a lifelong title, "Once an Eagle, always an Eagle." Requirements include earning merit badges and demonstrating Scout spirit, service, and leadership. Eagle Scout projects include an extensive service project that the Scout plans, organizes, leads, and manages.

Trevor led every aspect of this project including maintaining constant communication with the City, designing the project, presenting it to his troop leaders for approval, seeking approval from the City, purchasing the materials, scheduling the work, directing his troop to their respective roles, and successfully completing the project ahead of schedule. The kiosk was well-constructed and was fitted with a metal roof to match the look of the Environmental Discovery Center.

On Tuesday, June 14th, Trevor was personally thanked by fellow Eagle Scout (1957) Mayor Ed Kelley at the information kiosk for his generous contribution to the Environmental Discovery Center.

Enviro Camp

Enviro Camp began its 11th year this week in a brand new facility! Twenty enthusiastic youngsters filled the Environmental Discovery Center's classroom to prepare to step back in time with this week's theme "Blast from the Past." The campers traveled through time to experience a whole different world! Beginning at the dawn of time, they learned about dinosaurs and fossils.

Archeologist Emily Murray, from the Florida Public Archaeology Network, gave them some hands-on experience in archaeology. While busy on two archeological digs, they had a surprise visit from Mayor Ed Kelley. Mayor Kelley spent time with the children and got a first hand look at the items the campers found on site.

After exploring prehistoric times, the campers played "pioneer" and learned how our ancestors lived before modern technology. The young trailblazers surveyed Central Park's grounds, hiked the paths, and searched for natural treasures. It was an educational and fun first week!

Embry Riddle Basketball Camp

This week, Embry Riddle hosted its annual summer basketball camp for children 6 to 14 years of age at the Nova Community Center. There were 50 eager children who attended the week long camp.

The camp was led by Embry Riddle coaches and players, and the children learned many new basketball skills. The week ended with a 3-on-3 tournament, certificates, and prizes.

The Coffee with a Cop program was held at Starbucks at 247 E. Granada Blvd. on June 14th, 2016, between 8:30 a.m. and 10 a.m. Mayor Kelley, Chief Godfrey, Captain Crimins, Acting Captain Rosenthal, Officer Brennan, Officer Dovine, and members of the police department's administration spoke with the citizens and visitors in attendance.

Starbucks manager, Denise Milligan, indicated that 130 citizens participated in the program and they shared positive feedback about the department and the program. The coffee was free and the conversations were priceless.

We appreciate Starbucks' continued support of the Ormond Beach Police Department Community Outreach programs. Coffee with a Cop is building a stronger community one cup at a time!
