Ormond Beach beachgoers, take note: Designs for the upcoming Andy Romano beachfront park are progressing well in Ormond Beach and the city's consultants will offer an update tonight with drawings offering a bird's eye view of the park.

Updates on the park will be discussed during the City Commission meeting, which begins at 7 p.m. at City Hall, 22 S. Beach St.

The new park will be located on city-owned land at 839 S. Atlantic Ave. Dozens of residents participated in public workshops to discuss park plans and offer input on the beachfront park, which will be named after the city's "Mr. Beach," a longtime beachcomber, angler, former head of the city lifeguard corps, retired school principal, and former beach concessionaire.
