FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspicious Device

Location: 226 Cardinal Drive (Pirates Coves Miniature Golf)

Date & Time: Monday, July 21st, 2014 @ 0822 hours

The Ormond Beach Police Department is investigating a suspicious device that was found by an employee of Pirates Cove Miniature Golf located at 226 Cardinal Drive in Ormond Beach, Fl. The suspicious device was found by the employee near one of the vending machines and he notified the Police Department of his concerns. The suspicious device was described as gray PVC pipe, ¼ to ½ in diameter approximately two to three inches long. The device had both ends capped. The Volusia County Sheriff's Office Bomb squad was summoned to the scene and they rendered the device 'safe'. Bomb technicians could not find any indication that the device had any explosives within it. They further conducted a sweep of the area utilizing one of their explosive canine detection dogs and there was nothing found.

No one was injured during the incident.

Anyone who witnessed this incident or knows who left this suspicious device behind is asked to contact Detective Daniel Jordan @ (386) 677-0731 or Crimestoppers @ 277-TIPS or 1-888-277-TIPS.
