

BECOMING A CANDIDATE

(Updated: March 27, 2018)

What is a Candidate?

A candidate is defined in 97.021(5), Florida Statutes, as any person to whom any one or more of the following applies:

- Any person who seeks to qualify for nomination or election by means of a petitioning process.
- Any person who seeks to qualify for election as a write-in candidate.
- Any person who receives contributions or makes expenditures or gives his or her consent for any other person to receive contributions or make expenditures, with a view to bringing about his or her nomination or election to, or retention in, public office.
- Any person who appoints a treasurer and designates a primary depository.
- Any person who files qualification papers and subscribes to a candidate's oath as required by law.

However, this definition does not include any candidate for a political party executive committee.

Who can be a Candidate?

- You must be a registered voter in Volusia County to run for local public office.
- A candidate for County Council shall be a qualified elector of the county, and shall have been a resident of the county for two years immediately preceding the date on which they qualify to run for office. District candidates shall have resided within the district from which they are elected for at least six months prior to the date on which they qualify to run for office (County Charter, Sec. 302).
- School Board candidates must reside in the district for which they are qualifying at the time of qualifying. For specific requirements of qualifying as a candidate for school board, please contact the Volusia County School Board.
- If required by the "resign to run law" to resign from one's current position or office, the written resignation must be filed by April 20, 2018 for U.S. Senator, Representative in Congress, Circuit Court Judge, State Attorney and Public Defender candidates or June 8, 2018 for all other candidates. (99.012 (3), Florida Statutes).

When do I announce my candidacy?

- Candidacy may be announced at any time.
- You MUST file an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (Form DS-DE 9) with the Supervisor of Elections Office before any contributions are accepted, before opening a campaign account, and before expenditures are made (106.021, Florida Statutes).
- You MUST file a Statement of Candidate (Form DS-DE 84) within ten (10) days of filing the Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (106.023, Florida Statutes).
- Candidates for County Judge must file a Statement of Candidate for Judicial Office (Form DS-DE 83).

May I get my qualifying fee back if I decide not to run?

Yes, 99.092(1), Florida Statutes, provides for reimbursement for the qualifying fee, provided that you withdraw your candidacy before the qualifying period ends.

Is there an alternative method to qualify as a candidate?

Pursuant to 99.095, Florida Statutes, a person seeking to qualify for nomination to any office may qualify to have their name placed on the ballot by means of the petitioning process.

Candidates who have filed the Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository (Form DS-DE 9) and Statement of Candidate (Form DS-DE 84) may obtain petition cards (Form DS-DE 104) from the Division of Elections website (<http://dos.myflorida.com/elections/forms-publications/forms/>).

Pursuant to 99.095(2)(a), Florida Statutes, petition cards must be properly completed and signed by 1% of the eligible, registered voters within the District as of the last general election. Pursuant to 99.095(2)(c), Florida Statutes, petition forms are to be reproduced by the candidate.

Petition requirements by office, are as follows:

County Judge	3634
County Council At-Large	3634
County Council District 1	707
County Council District 3	768
County Council District 5	704
School Board District 1	739
School Board District 3	781
School Board District 5	677
Volusia Soil & Water Conservation District:	25
West Volusia Hospital Authority:	25

It is recommended that at least 15 – 20% more signatures be obtained to allow for those that do not meet eligibility requirements.

- Candidates are encouraged to submit petitions periodically while they are being gathered. However, the signed petitions must be submitted to the Supervisor of Elections Office prior to NOON on April 2, 2018 for U.S. Senator, Representative in Congress, Circuit Court Judge, State Attorney and Public Defender candidates and NOON, May 21, 2018 for all other candidates for verification.
- The Supervisor of Elections will notify you, in writing, whether the required number of signatures has been obtained prior to the first day of qualifying.
- During the qualifying period you will submit the petition certification form, along with your qualifying papers to the Supervisor of Elections.
- The supervisor shall be paid in advance the sum of 10 cents for each signature checked. If you are unable to pay such charges without imposing an undue burden on personal resources or upon the resources otherwise available to you, you may file written certification of such inability given under oath to the supervisor and be entitled to have the signatures verified at no charge. (99.097, Florida Statutes).

BECOMING A CANDIDATE

- If an undue burden oath has been filed and payment is subsequently made to any person to solicit signatures on a petition, the undue burden oath is no longer valid and a fee for all signatures previously submitted shall be paid by the candidate.
- If you have submitted the required number of eligible signatures, you will not be required to pay the qualifying fee or party assessment and will be entitled to have your name printed on the ballot.

What are the amounts of the qualifying fees for county offices?

Pursuant to 99.092, Florida Statutes, qualifying fees for 2018 Volusia County candidates are comprised as follows:

- Filing Fee 3.0% of salary for office being sought as of July 1, 2017
- Election Assessment Fee 1.0% (deposited into the Elections Commission Trust Fund)
- Party Assessment Fee 2.0% (Partisan offices only)

	Qualifying Fee
County Judge	$ 5,520.80
County Council At-Large	$ 1,785.46
County Council District 1	$ 1,785.46
County Council District 3	$ 1,785.46
County Council District 5	$ 1,785.46
School Board District 1	$ 1,658.48
School Board District 3	$ 1,658.48
School Board District 5	$ 1,658.48
Volusia Soil & Water Conservation District:	$25
West Volusia Hospital Authority:	$25

Please Note: Prior to disposing of campaign funds, pursuant to 106.141, Florida Statutes, any candidate who filed an oath stating that he or she was unable to pay the election assessment or fee for verification of petition signatures, or who qualified through the petition process and was not required to pay an election assessment, shall reimburse the state or local governmental entity, whichever is applicable, for such waived assessment or fee for verification or both. Such reimbursement shall be made first for the cost of petition verification and then, if funds are remaining, for the amount of the election assessment. The remaining funds shall be disbursed in the manner prescribed.
